MISSIONARY UPDATE: Dearborn Project -

Back in Our Groove: Summer came and went like a flash of lightning. We welcomed three new interns, and before we knew it, their time was coming to a close. . .Our family vacation to North Carolina. . .Our kids went back to school, and we already have welcomed our new intern for the fall. We've taken a few pauses in there, but it has been a steady stream of getting back in our groove. Teaching in person. New friends in the community. So many good things falling back into place. As we dive head first into life in ministry, here are some things to keep in prayer:

- Protection over our homes and families
- Strong marriage relationships
- Gospel-centered conversations with new moms at school, students at ESL (English as a Second Language), families of kids we tutor, others in the community
- Safety and personal renewal for Adam and myself as we travel to Turkey Oct. 14 to spend time with leaders from Turkic/Arabic fields
- Adam's close friend, Amir, who is back in Yemen

We know many of our friends have a long journey to experiencing Christ in their lives. But we praise God if they can see that we serve a God who is intimately involved with his people! This is a foreign idea for a lot of our Muslim friends. Pray that God would reveal Himself in meaningful ways.

Being a Christian is like being a pumpkin!

God picks you from the patch and brings you in.

(John 15:16)

Then washes all the dirt off of you.

(2 Corinthians 5:17)

He opens you up and scoops out all the yucky stuff. He removes the seeds of doubt, hate, greed, etc.

(Romans 6:6:)

Then He carves you a new smiling face.

(Psalm 71:23)

And He puts His light inside you to shine for all the world to see.

(Matthew 5:16)
