UPDATE FROM THE COLLINS IN

CAMBODIA: Our new way of life here is taking some time to get used to. From language school and learning to drive a moto to going grocery shopping and figuring out our way around this new city, we have been very busy! We have moved into our apartment and spent several weeks making it homey! We love our new home and feel very safe! We are enrolled in full time language school and have class every morning until lunch time. We're beginning to help teach English to children some evenings and have begun helping lead a youth group at our closest Khmer Wesleyan Church. Every day is an adventure and we're still just trying to figure out what life looks like here and get acquainted with the city!

- Please pray for us as we continue to settle into our new "home country." Some days we get overwhelmed, tired, and of course homesick. We truly love it here, but reality is that it isn't always easy. Please pray for each of our overall wellbeing as we continue to adjust to this new life and pray for our marriage too that we continue to grow stronger together and in the Lord!

Thank you again so much for constantly praying for us and encouraging us. If you aren't following our page "Collins in Cambodia" on Facebook, check it out! We post updates more often on there. Each and every one of you mean so much to us and we are incredibly thankful for people like you who have answered the call to be supporters and prayer warriors for missionaries like us. We love you! Andrew & Lexi Collins
