MISSIONARY UPDATE FROM WAHA-

LAND (names and location withheld for security purposes): “It is easy in this type of work to overly focus on output. However, this week I took some time to get away for a day alone with God to rest in Him, reflect on what He is doing in me, and what He wants to do through us. It was an incredibly refreshing time. It would be easy to think this is an inefficient use of time. However, the Lord reminded me, much like He did with Martha, it is ok to sit in the presence of Him from time to time. Beyond that reminder, God also reminded me that He wants to see Muslims come to Him way more than I do. And I can rest in that reality. . . A couple of years ago (my wife) introduced me to the song, 'Your Labor Is Not In Vain.' This has become a rallying song for the times when it feels like our efforts are useless. God led me through this song several times during my day with Him. “Your labor and your rest is not in vain.” Sincerely, Your Global Partners in Waha-land

BAPTISM SERVICE: Pastor Danny would like to schedule a baptism service in the near future (date not yet set). If you are interested in being a
